

HR Questions & Answers

Where do you see yourself in next five years?

I see myself being a more developed and grown up individual having a greater set of skills, command and in depth knowledge of the major technologies out there. I wish to grow not just as an individual but along with the entire company taking it to new heights and always doing my level best in ensuring I give my 100% and even more

What are your expectations from company XYZ?

I expect myself being a more developed and grown up individual having a greater set of skills, command and in depth knowledge of the major technologies out there. I wish to grow not just as an individual but along with the entire company taking it to new heights and always doing my level best in ensuring I give my 100% and even more.

Why do you want to join XYZ?

XYZ is one of the fastest growing tech companies and also has a plethora of tech stack and fields where it is expanding. So, I personally feel that I will get immense opportunities to develop my tech profile over here not just in one field rather in any of the field that I will be interested in.

Strengths

I personally feel that I am a quick learner, I learn things bit faster than others
Also I adjust according to new surroundings and new people real quick.

Weakness

Sometimes when there the workload is too high then I start compromising with my health as at that time my first priority is to complete the work efficiently.
To overcome this, now I have started to follow a proper time schedule which gives me ample time to look after my health.

Agar puchhe team player ya team.leader

I am comfortable with both the roles as the situation and company demands from me

Iske alawa HR round se pahle jo time bachta hai usmein company ka overview dekh lena zaroor se.companies ke core values pakka se dekh lena aur agar HR puchhe why should we hire you type ka kuchh toh ek point zaroor bol dena ki tum company ke core values ke hisaab se fit baithte ho kuchh kuchh kahani bana ke har core values ke saath.

Agar HR puchhe ki further studies karne ka plan hai toh

Sidhe bol do no sir not interested I want to apply whatever I have learnt during college days and have an exposure to industry.

Iske alawa kisi bhi random questions ke liye prepared rhna?

Jaise

- 1) If you have infinite resources , manpower ! Then what u will do
- 2) You use many apps like PhonePe , flipkart , amazon , paytm etc , what u feel about them when u use it ? To be precise , does it motivate you to learn/explore something new ?
- 3) Why cse ? Or Why ece ?etc.

Iska ek hi trick hai freeze mat hona kuchh na kuchh toh bolo hi kabhi na bolo mujhe na aata ya maine aisakabhi socha nhi , soch samajh ke kuchh dhang ka bolo aise random farji baateinn mat kar dena koshish karo technical aspect mein baat karo possible ho toh

Mere se puchha tha ki agar tumhein pahle 100m daudne ke liye hazaar rupaye dunga aur agla 10m ke liye 1 rupat+ya dunga toh daudoge ki nhi

Ek aur tha ki 5 cheez jo kisi bhi company ke successful operation ke liye zaroori hai Ismein profit zaroor mention karna

HR chahega ki tumhein koi ek side choose karne ko de jaise ki startup ya established company ya fir team player ya team leader toh kabhi bhi ek side choose mat karna hamesha bolo dono sahi hain kuchh kuchh advantage dono ka bata ke avoid karo ek side lena dikhaao ki tum har ek cheez ke liye comfortable ho.
